Deaths.—Miss Sallie F. Hooe, for forty-eight years a resident of this city, died near Catleit's station yesterday. The deceased was born in Prince William county, near Manassas, one hundred years ago last September, and had consequently seen the advent and exit of the nineteenth century, having lived on the confines of three centuries. She was a daughter of Captain R. H. Hooe, and took up her residence in Alexandria in 1840, remaining here until 1888, when she removed to Fauquier county where she spent the evening of her life. Her remains will be brought here tomorrow for interment in Ivy Hill cemetery.

Miss Pattie T. Jackson, a venerable and much esteemed lady, died at the residence of Col. L. W. Reid last night.

INFIRMARY NOTES .- Dr. C. L. Starkweather, of Occequan, was thrown from his buggy while driving near that place yesterday and was badly bruised, so badly that he laid in the road for some time, but finally made his way to a house where he was cared for and was later sent to this city on the Richmond train which arrived here after 11 o'clock last night. He was then taken to the Infirmary where he received attention and is now doing well.

Mr. John Nevitt, of near Mount Vernon, and Mr. Finigan, foreman at Paff's to the Infirmary last week suffering with pneumonis, died at that institution this morning.

OLD FOLKS' CONCERT.—Besides those already named who will sing at the concert tomorrow night, may be mentioned Miss Mai Greenwell, who will tioned Miss Mai Greenwell, who will repeat her solo given at the concert last spring. Another singer whose services have been secured is Miss Ida O'Neal, of Washington, who, with Miss Greenwell, will sing the duet for two sopranos in Mendelssohn's "I Waited for the Lord." Miss O'Neal will also be heard in a solo. Mr. Whittlesey and his daughters, Misses Helen and Gertrude, will open "ye seconde halfe" of the programme with on instrumental trio. Miss Green will play "ye meledaria". Miss Green will play "ye melodeon," and Mr. Fowler will "finger ye barpsi-chorde." The "meeting" will be under the direction of "ye Head Singer," Mr. Frank Field.

PAINFULLY BURNED.—The infant daughter of Mr. Harry Richards, living on Prince street, near Fairfax, had one of its hands seridusly burned shortly af-ter twelve o'clock today. The child was crawling about the floor and while its mother's attention was directed to another part of the room the little one shove. It screamed piteously and its mother had some difficulty in getting the child's hand from the stove without leaving much of the flesh clinging thereto. Medical aid was immediately secured and everything done to allay the pains of the little sufferer.

CO-OPERATIVE CHARITHES .- Owing to the inclemency of the weather of last Tuesday the Co-operative Charities postponed their donation party which will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, at the Business Men's League rooms between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. Since the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. THE CHURCHES .- The services at the various churches yesterday were well attended and in most instances were conducted by the resident pastors. At the Second Presbyterian Church, Rev. C. R. Womeldorf, of Maranhao, Brazil, delivered a lecture on "Missions in Brazil." He also conducted the services in the evening. At St. Mary's Catholic Courch, Rev. W. Gaston Payne delivered an interesting sermon Payne delivered an interesting sermon at the 10:30 o'clock mass. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a large congregation at Trinity Methodist Church listened to an address on "Solomon's Temple," delivered by Mr. W. H. H. Smith, of Washington. This service was under the auspices of the Berkley Brotherhood. The services at the Railroad Reading Rooms were conducted yesterday afternoon by Mr. E. R. Jones, of day afternoon by Mr. E. R. Jones, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. At night at the M. E. Church South Rev. E. V. Regester commenced a series of protracted meetings. There were no services at the Methodist Protestant Church, on account of the indisposition of the pasror, Rev. Dr. Warfield, who is confined to his home with an attack of grip.

BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES.— The services at the Baptist Church last night were most instructive and entertaining. Dr. Hunt addressed the societies of the young people, and his remarks, rather in the form of a lecture, were inspiring to all. He exhorted all to do everything in life their very best, whether it was for the Lord of in daily work, pointing out how a man could have so much reater influence for good if he was successful in business. Aptillustrations were portrayed for this phase of the subject. Services will be held every evening this week conducted by the pastor, Dr. Hunt, in the lecture room of the church. All are invited.

Supervisors' Meeting -The Coun-y Supervisors met today and the meeting was quite a stormy one. A cumber of accounts were audited. During a discussion of the work done by the County Surveyor one of the Supervisors claimed that that officer was trying to hoodwink the propie of the county. The Surveyor resented the attack, when a collision occurred, during which ink stends and chairs were used as weapons of attack and defense. Sev oral blows were exchanged, but finally firmsry about ten days ago, both with broken leg are improving and will soon he out. John H. Pitt, colored, who was sert poned till the 23th inst., to which date the meeting adjourned.

PERSONAL -Miss Alice Chine, after week's visit to friends and relatives, returned to her home in Alexandria Tuesdey morning. Miss Chinn is al-ways a welcome addition to Front Royal's social circle.—[Front Royal
